SETH WINS THE JUVENILE

PARK STAKE FEATURE.

Sweep Makes Auspicious Debut and Wins at Short Odds-Miss Nett Reduces Track Record for Half a Mile.

New York, May 14.—Seth, the Newcastle Stable's Adam—Purity two-year-old, was winner of the Juvenile Stakes at Belmont Park this afternoon. Coupled with Zeus, he was the post favorite for the race and his victory was notable from the fact that jockey Notter, who rode him, was kicked by Babbler, the Belmont starter, while at the post and was lame when he dismounted. The race was a bit luky, for Helene wheeled and was left, while Zeus was knocked out of contention early and Dust was away so badly as to have no chance. Just before the race there was a sprinkle of rain and the youngsters ran in the teeth of a high wind.

The Juvenile Stakes, first run in 1874, was a Jerome Park fixture until 1892, and from that year until 1805 was run at Morris Park. Its tabled history since 1900 is shown below:

In the opening race Miss Nett hung up a track record for a half mile when she fluished in 463, while the stake colts only ran five-eighths in 1:02. The Norwood Selling Stakes went to G. M. Odom's Prince Gal, which rather handily disposed of Campeon, Galley Slave and four others, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Mexoana made her first start of the year in this race and, after showing some speed, quit badly. Sweep, winner of last year's Futurity, had an easy task in the second after the first had sheen withdrawn and, though carried wide in the stretch by King Olympian, won easily and will surely be a top-notch three-year-old.

The steeplechase had only three starters and after Sir Ritchie fell at the seventa jump, Rising Star, the favorite, handily beat old Conover, ridden by Mr. Page. Dinna Ken which raced in England last year, had only to canter to win the closing race. Shackleton was added in the Juvenile and trainer Littlefield was confident that he would make a good showing. After the race jockey Doyle told him the colt was coughing. He took his temperature and found nothing serious the matter with his charge. The stables of F. A. Forsythe, C. L. Harrison and Woodford Clay reached Sheepshead Bay today. The slipment includes Waldo and Ocean Bound. The latter is one of cleven in the Clay string and she will be pointed for the Ladies Stakes.

HOPE REVIVED IN LOUISIANA.

New Orleans Business Men Sanguine of Restoration of Racing Despite Governor's Attitude.

New Orleans, La., May 14.—Business men of New Orleans who are advocating the restoration of racing took on renewed hope of having the sport revived as the result of a rousing meeting at the Progressive Union Hall Thursday night. Albert Godehaux, the millionaire clothier, whose name headed the petition for the meeting, made a stirring address, stating that he believed having race tracks owned and controlled by business men would induce the legislature now in session to repeal the Locke law.

Mayor Behrman, returning from the capital, addressed the meeting and said he felt satised that four senators who voted for the passage of the Locke law had changed their views. The mayor's speech was greeted with applause.

It became evident as the meeting progressed that the restoration of racing under a reform regime is greatly desired by the hotel, cafe, restaurant and other business interests of the Crescent City. Representatives from the Business Mens' Club were presentatives from the Business Mens' Club were present to tell how the city has suffered in a commercial way for the last two years because of the operation of the Locke law prohibiting betting. Informal discussion developed that the legislature, now in session, will be asked to appoint a commistion on the Kentucky plan and install pari-mutuel machines. It was decided to appoint a commistee of five members of the Progressive Union to report as to whether a petition should be presented, said petition to be voted upon by members of the organization to determine whether the Progressive Union is to sanction sending a committee to Baton Rouge.

From a reliable source it was learned that options have been secured on the stock in the two tracks now held by outsiders, A holding company is planned, to be composed of local men to conduct races on the scale which prevailed in the old days. After the meeting those favoring the return of Gacing were jubilant over the outlook, despite the declaration of Governor Sanders' that the situation was hopeless.

DONAU AND HIS DAM.

DONAU AND HIS DAM.

Lexington, Ky., May 14.—Thomas Piatt, the young Kentuckian who owns Al Lone, the dam of Donau, has now at his farm on the Spurr pike near this city a yearling brother to the winner of the thirty-sixth Kentucky Derby. In conformation and markings, but not in color, this goungster resembles his distinguished, brother. Donau is a, pay, while this yearling is brown. Mr. Piatt says that he is quite like Donau in disposition and habits. "While Woolsthorpe and Al Lone were the property of Col. Milton Young and he was the breeder of Donau," said Mr. Piatt today, "I kept the mare at my place for him and shared in the profits of her produce. Donau was foaled on my farm and I had him until he was sold to William Gerst for $350 as a yearling at Sheepshead Bay. September 1, 1908. At that age Donau was a veritable buil dog. He was not a savage colt, but he was not one of the kind that would stand petting. He did not like to have the other colts about him and would use his heels whenever they came near him. This yearling brother of his 's much the same in these respects. Ordinarilly when I wean my colts I put two in a stall, but I could not do it with Donau and his brother. Donau had to have a stall to himself, and so does this youngster. Lett. One of Frone Clark. Kitty Clengry, and Mischbert, one of Loneard bay mace by imported Albert, one of Frone Clark. Kitty Clengry, was a serviceable selling plater and was raced for six years by A. F. Dayton, D. J. Honau, John Dowd and other tracks. In those six years she was started 12s times, won sixteen races, was second thirteen times, third twenty-five times and unplaced seventy-four times. While still racing in the spring of 1901, as a seven-year-old, she was mated for the first time with Banquo II.. and foaled in the spring of 1902 a chestnut filly named Mae Erwin that never raced. She was not bred in 1902, and that fall Col. Milton Young bought her and brought her to McGrathiana Stud. mating her in the spring of 1903 with Inspector B. The result of this union

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At the close of the Latonia meeting the Kentucky Derby winner, Donau, will be shipped to Canada, R. F. Carman's good three-year-old Billiard Ball pulled up lame after a recent work-out at Belmont Park.

By P. J. Dwyer's order the Aqueduct track flag has been displayed at half mast ever since the death of King Edward.

The Delorimier Park meeting will begin next Saturday and continue for the seven days allowed by the new Canadian law.

The New York Legislature has passed a bill repealing the five per-cent, state tax on gross receipts of race tracks.

ceipts of race tracks.

The horses of Bartlett McLennan, in charge of William Hogan, will be shipped from Belmont Park to Toronto Wednesday.

Jockeys E. Griffin, W. Brannon and M. Henry are attached to the Pons stable, which has just arrived at Donglas Park from the east.

The well-known American Jockey, Lucien Lyne, is lying seriously ill in Brussels, and the doctors fear that he is suffering from appendicitis.

John Keagen, superintendent of the Latonia track, predicts that the Kenton county course will be faster this season than at any time in its history.

Harry Stone, who is now a full fledged trainer of steeplechase horses, is giving King Castle useful galloping and schooling through the field at Belmont Park.

CHESTER KRUM BEATS GOOD ONES.

Wins Santa Cruz Handicap at Oakland, Which Is Marred by Mishap at Start.

San Francisco, Cal., May 14.—Chester Krum, in winning the Santa Cruz Handicap at Oakland today, beat some of the best racers on the coast. The race was marred by Orbicular, the favorite, and Follie L. being as good as left at the post. When the barrier was sprung Follie L. wheeled in front of Orbicular and blocked him. Chester Krum beat the gate, but jockey Buxton allowed Raleigh and Kid North to set the pace. He moved up gradually and, taking the lead in the final sixteenth, won in a drive with Raleigh, after causing jockey Coburn to take up some. Rey Hindoo closed fast and was third.

There were a number of upsets, Rosamo being the only favorite to land, Dacia, at 20 to 1, showed much improvement with light weight and won the two-year-old race. Bit of Fortune proved the winner of the sprinting race. Bincoular, the favorite, bled and the heavily-backed Fernando showed only a fash of early speed.

Redeem, well handled by jockey Callaban, won the fifth from Eddle Graney. John Louis, the first choice, was poorly handled. Rosamo was bid up from $400 to $600 by C. Johnson, but was retained. Burns & Waterhouse have sold Pearl Bass to C. B. Heath for $500. H. Nancolas bought Coppers, Jake Holtman will send the fields away commencing Monday.

A carload of horses will leave tomorrow for Salt Lake. In the shipment will go E. M. Fry, Fernando, Gossiper II., Charley Paine, Ellerd, Rosevale, Bell-flower, Copperfield and Enfield.

Jockey Vandusen will leave for Salt Lake, F. Rinehart will ship Merlingo and others to Ogden Wednesday.

Louisville, Ky.. May 14.—Capt. James H. Reese, for years a leading racing official, has been in attendance at the Churchill Downs meeting since Derby day. If things shane up again for racing in Tennessee, it is likely that Captain Reese will get back into the harness and lend a helping hand to his old association, the Memphis Jockey Club. He believes the mutuel pool systēm of betting to be the salvation of racing, and he looks for it to lead to a revival of the sport in Tennessee in the near future, as well as in other states where the gates of the race tracks have been forced to close on account of adverse legislation.

Captain Reese, who was a life-long friend of the late Capt. S. S. Brown, states that the last remnant of the Brown estate's interest in racing has ceased. First the Kentucky Association track was sold and then Senorita Stock Farm, his thoroughbred breeding plant, was parted with by the estate, and all its horses and belongings as well. Now Harry W. Brown, his brother, has also sold his stock in the Memphis Jockey Club. Capt. C. A. Tilles, virtually the present owner of the Latonia track, bought the Brown stock in the Memphis track. Captain Reese says the Memphis track remains today in as good condition as in its palmy days. The Tri-State Fair Association has in the last two years expended over $100,000 on the plant, and in Captain Reese's sopinion it is only a question of time when turfmen will again see the Montgomery Handicap, Tennessee Derby and other great races decided over the famous track. He also says that Memphis, like other cities, is waking up to the fact that in drawing visitors to a place all other amusements and attractions are tame compared to the sport in which the feet-footed racer strives for the blue ribbon of a great Derby.

GOSSIP OF KENTUCKY FARMS.

Lexington, Ky., May 14.—Miss Melton, one of J. B. Respess' good mares, is dead at the Thomas Platt farm as the result of an abscess. She leaves a chestnut colt by Dick Welles that is a brother tc Mary Genevieve, and which has been given to another mare. Fashionable, the dam of the Metropolitan Handicap winner. Fashion Plate, is at the Platt farm in foal to Woolsthorpe.

Pink Domino, the dam of Sweep, has a brown colt by Delhi at Castleton Stud. Major Daingerfield says the sucklings at Castleton are the most representative crop that he has seen in his many years as a breeder of thoroughbred horses.

Algernon Daingerfield is here from New York to see his first daughter, born this week.

Equivalent booking odds—Louis Katz, 185 to 100 straight, 130 to 100 place, 55 to 100 show; H. R. Brandt (field), 530 to 100 place, 120 to 100 show: Oriental Pearl, 95 to 100 show.

Winner—Br. c, by Buck Massle—Fair Fortune (trained by H. McCoulskey).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. 1.0UIS KATZ ran like a good colt, moved up steadily and, wearing H. R. BRANDT down in the last sixtenth, was drawing away at the end. H. R. BRANDT had a big advantage at 'the start and showed the most speed for a half, but tired in the stretch drive. ORIENTAL PEARL closed a big gap steadily and was going fast at the end. COUNT DE ORO suffered from interference on the first turn and ran fairly well. BODEGA tired. ATHIE W. ran a good race. DON'T acted badly at the post and made a good showing. CLARKSBURG had scant chance with a poor send-off. The winner was entered for $400; no bid. Overweights—Redlass, 23 pounds; Helen Scott, 1; New Star, 3.

Winner—B. m. by Ornament—Queenlike II. (trained by G. Denny).

Went to post at 4:47. At post 22 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. KING'S DAIGHTER is in splendid form, was restrained for the first three-quarters and went into the lead when called on to win as her rider pleased. T. M. GREEN made up ground and, in a fast finish, outstayed CHYSTAL MAID in the final drive. CRYSTAL MAID was taken wide most of the way, but ran well and finished gamely. DONAU set a fast pace for seven furlongs, but tired badly in the last furlong. GREEN SEAL showed early speed, but quit as if short. HANBRIDGE ran away four miles before the start and was allowed to be withdrawn. SPOONER went two miles before the start and pulled up in the race.

$8590 Oakland	"More than a hundred purchasers" have voluntarily written me that My "Sure Shot Method" is the "Greatest Winning System" ever discovered and they "ought to know"—and they also say it's the only Method on earth that will beat the "Handbooks." "I Guarantee" to show you the "Sure Way" and "easy way" to beat them with small capital. Your "Money Back" if I fail to do it. It only takes a minute every morning to pick a Safe "One Best Bet" from the "Entries" and you "Win" nearly every bet you make and at good prices. Send for My "Sure Shot Method" and get out of the "losing habit." You can easily prove My Method a "Sure Winner" on over (4) years' records before you bet a dollar. I show you the way to take $25 capital and beat any "Handbook" and "I guarantee it." My Complete "Sure Shot Method" will be sent by return mail to any address upon rec't of M. O. $5. (Everything strictly confidential.) Address WM. H. SUTTON, Chemist. 1021 West 25th St. : Los Angeles, Cal.	April 30—CRYSTAL MAID 3-2 WON
